Responding to feedback 16 Mark
League of Nations

After reviewing my work I found that my strength was giving 3 different points but my area of development is to give more detailed examples and explanation for each one.

Excellence task

However when ~~countries~~ other important countries only belonged for brief period was also a significant reason for the failure of the League of Nations because it reduced the League's authority and made the League appear as a European club led by Britain and France. An example of this was when Japan left 1931 as well as Italy left in 1937 and how Germany was a member 1926-33. The self interest of leading members, especially Italy, Japan, Britain and France was also a significant reason for the failure of the League because aggression by Italy and Japan. Weak leadership by Britain and France.

The Spanish Civil War

Dear prime minister,

I must protest, Germany must be stopped. Firstly Germany reoccupying the Rhine land and ignoring the TOV is going against our agreement and you must take action immediately. Have you not been reading the newspaper lately? The image of Guernica has left the world in shock they have been carpet bombed by Italy and Germany ~~too~~ even after we all agreed we would not partake in the Spanish civil war the whole town was destroyed in one single afternoon. Does this not frighten Britain and France that we could be attacked by bombers too? They have broken international law.

The Ignored complaint

Dear League

You must help us to remove the Japanese from Manchuria. They invaded our land and have treated our people brutally. I am extremely disappointed in your actions so far because you have done nothing to help us kick the Japanese out of Manchuria. Physical or Military force should have been used upon them. They even renamed Manchuria to Manchukuo and disarmed our Chinese soldiers.

I thought the League was supposed to prevent this sort of thing? The other countries aren't going to step in all of the money given to you was a waste. The other countries are preoccupied with getting through the depression. Nor ~~do~~<sup>do</sup> they want to endanger their trade with Japan and make things worse.

penalty went from 3 in 1933 to 46 by 1943.

However, propaganda was also effective in controlling Germans. For example the newspapers Anti Nazi newspapers were shut down and Jews were banned from working for newspapers and always sent instructions to the newspaper telling them what to print or publish. It helped control Germany because it influenced German people's beliefs and made them think Nazis are good people.

A further example of this would be

7/12/22 'I don't want to be part of the Hitler youth'

Dear diary,

Joining the ~~Hitler youth~~ League of German Maidens is something that I will never do! I can't stand the way that they prioritise learning about looking after a family over my education which had a bad effect on my school ~~work~~ report and had no time to complete my homework. The Nazis want us to be obedient and do as we are told and ~~obey~~ they don't like Jazz music <sup>which is forbidden</sup> from Britain and France <sup>and the USA</sup> which they are against and are trying to control what we do. I joined a gang called the Navajos gang and the police received constant complaints. our favourite activity is to beat up Hitler youth patrols although this is something that the Nazi authorities weren't anxious to publicize.

How convincing is this interpretation of life in Germany during the war?

The interpretation is convincing because it says "Everywhere I looked people seemed to be enjoying themselves. Civilians and soldiers socialised happily at cafes in Berlin" and this is convincing because German forces won one great battle after another unlike the first world war.

A further reason why it is convincing is that it restored German pride.

However, it is not completely convincing because it says "Everywhere I looked people seemed to be enjoying themselves" and I know that Food rationing began in Sept 1939 and the source is from 1940.

A further reason why it is not convincing
